texts.

- Understand the structures writers use to achieve coherence; (headings; links within and between paragraphs; connectives).
- Recognise authors' techniques to influence and manipulate the reader.

- Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning e.g. persuasive leaflet, balanced argument.

Discuss / evaluate how authors use language including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader by:

- Exploring, recognising and using the terms personification, analogy, style and effect.
- Explaining the effect on the reader of the authors' choice of language and reasons why the author may have selected these.
- Distinguish between statements of fact or opinion across a range of texts e.g. first-hand account of an event compared with a reported example such as Samuel Pepys' diary and a history textbook.
- Participate in discussions about books building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously.

Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary by:

- Preparing formal presentations individually or in groups.
- Using notes to support presentation of information.
- Responding to questions generated by a presentation.
- Participating in debates on issues related to reading (fiction/non-fiction).
- Provide reasoned justifications for their views
- Justifying opinions and elaborating by referring to the text e.g. Point;Evidence;Explanation
