End Of Term Service in Gamston St Peter's Church, Friday 14th February

Our last day of term is Friday, 14th February. We will be concluding the term with a service at St Peter's Church at 2:30 pm.

Due to space, there will be a limit of 2 adults (family members) per child in church, please. Please note, this may be standing room only.

During the service, we will sing songs and the children will lead us in readings, prayers and performances. We are also delighted that we will be joined by Rev. Craig Hunt.

Tyndale Residential 'Return'

Most of Tyndale Class will not be joining us at Church as they are not due back at school until approximately 2:30, following their residential visit. As previously communicated, children returning from residential can be collected at 2:30. If you would like to collect siblings at the same time, please can we kindly ask that you inform the office, so that they remain in school ready for collection. Please email office@gamston.snmat.org.uk

PFA Pancake Day Event, Tuesday 4th March

Join us for a delightful Pancake Day celebration on Tuesday, 4th March! The Parent-Friends Association (PFA) will be selling delicious pancakes in the playground after school. This is a wonderful opportunity for pupils and families to come together, enjoy a tasty treat, and support our school community. We look forward to seeing you there and sharing some pancake fun!

Photographs in School

We understand that capturing special moments is important for families, and we encourage parents to take photographs during designated events such as nativity plays and school performances. During such events, we kindly ask that parents focus their photography on their own child and refrain from sharing images that include other pupils on social media to ensure everyone's privacy is respected. Outside of these special events, we request that parents do not take photographs during school activities, including celebration worship on a Friday, to maintain a focused and respectful environment for all. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding in helping us create a safe and supportive atmosphere for our pupils.

World Book Day

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday, 6 March 2025! On this day, all children can come to school in pyjamas or non-uniform and bring their favourite book into school to share with their class.

Red Nose Day

The funniest day of the year is back on 21 March 2025. Get ready to feel good and do something funny for money. Together we will help people here in the UK and across the world. We're pleased to support Comic Relief on Friday, 21 March 2025. Children are welcome to come to school on this day wearing something red/non-school uniform. Any donations to support Comic Relief charities can be made directly via their website: <https://donation.comicrelief.com/cart/1YsYOwm2pHZgBUhWr8ZL13>

PFA NEWS

Valentines Cake Sale

The PFA will be holding a yummy Valentines cake sale straight after school on Friday 14th February. Mrs German has kindly offered to bake some valentine themed cupcakes for us to sell, if anyone would love to donate also it would be very much appreciated.

They can be shop bought or home-made, just drop them off on the morning of the 14th February on the trolley in the playground

Again many thanks for your support with the PFA events.

Annual General Meeting

We are pleased to announce the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Gamston St Peter's Primary School Parent and Friends Association (PFA), scheduled for Thursday, 27th February 2025. The meeting will commence at 7:00 PM in the school hall.

The PFA plays a crucial role in our school community, and we warmly invite all parents, as valued members of the PFA, to attend and support this important event. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn how the funds you have generously helped to raise have been utilised for the benefit of our children.

The AGM will also serve as a platform for electing the PFA Committee, who will represent the association throughout the upcoming year. If you are interested in standing as an Officer or Ordinary Committee Member for the first time, please submit your nominations in advance of the AGM. Existing committee members wishing to seek re-election do not need to be nominated again; however, they should inform the PFA of their intention to continue in their roles.

For more information about the responsibilities of being a Committee Member, please feel free to speak with our Chair, Sarah Rhodes, or email your inquiries to gamstonpfa@outlook.com. As our PFA is a registered charity, all committee members automatically become Trustees of the Charity. Below, you will find detailed descriptions of the roles and responsibilities.

We look forward to welcoming you on Thursday, 27th February.

Kind Regards,

Sarah Rhodes

PFA Chair

Chair

What's the main purpose of the role?

To direct the committee's meetings, make sure everyone is involved and their views are heard. The Chair should ensure all committee members are familiar with the constitution and their roles and responsibilities. The PFA Chair also holds the casting vote if the outcome is tied.

Responsibilities?

- Preparing and setting the agenda for meetings
- Setting the ground rules for – as well as chairing – meetings
- Delegating tasks to other committee members and volunteers, checking they're completed and offering support where needed
- Liaising with the school
- Ensuring the committee is governed in line with their constitution
- Ensuring any decisions are made correctly and fit the objectives of the association as set out in the constitution
- Writing the Chair's report for the AGM
- The Chair may also be a signatory on the PFA bank account

What qualities does a good Chair usually have?

- Confidence – with the ability to inspire and guide others
- Assertiveness – able to manage meetings
- The ability to remain impartial and be inclusive
- A calm, friendly and approachable manner
- Organisational skills – able to manage multiple projects
- The ability to delegate – so the workload is shared – and tasks are completed

The Treasurer

What's the main purpose of the role?

To ensure accurate financial records are kept and that best practice procedures are followed when counting money, making payments and banking. The Treasurer should keep your committee updated with regular reports and ensure end-of-year reports are completed for the association's AGM. If your PFA is a registered charity, they will also be required to coordinate the Charity Commission's annual return.

And the responsibilities?

- These vary from committee to committee but generally they include:
- Keeping accurate and up-to-date financial records
- Presenting financial updates at each committee meeting
- Managing the PFA bank account and holding the association cheque book/ debit card
- Monitoring and managing online payment platforms
- Preparing floats
- Ensuring best practice procedures are followed for counting and banking money, making payments and claiming expenses by all committee members
- Making any approved payments on the committee's behalf
- Preparing the annual Treasurer's report for the AGM and arranging an independent examination of the association's accounts
- Completing the relevant Charity Commission's annual return if your PFA is registered as a charity
- Managing Gift Aid (or assists the committee member responsible)

What qualities does a good Treasurer usually have?

- Knowledge of finances
- Organised
- Attentive to detail
- Able to meet deadlines
- A good understanding of spreadsheets or accountancy software

The Secretary

What's the main purpose of the role?

Supporting the PFA committee to build effective communication links between the school and the association. They also maintain accurate records.

And the responsibilities?

- Preparing for meetings (with the PTA Chair)
- Taking minutes at meetings, recording attendance, action points, decisions and proposals
- Circulating approved minutes, along with a reminder of any actions agreed
- Maintaining association records
- Making sure the association is GDPR-compliant
- Updating trustee details with relevant charity commission (as appropriate)

- May be a signatory on the PFA bank account (along with at least one other committee member)
- Handling the association's correspondence

What qualities does a good Secretary have?

- Organised and efficient – keeps accurate records in a format that can easily be handed over to a successor
- Good listener – able to identify key discussion points, actions, and agreements at meetings to accurately record in minutes
- Calm, friendly, and approachable – able to communicate confidently with the school and the committee members.
